Dear Neha—

Just wanted to say again what a pleasure it was having you demonstrate your henna art at Lowell this year.

By all accounts the festival was a huge success, and we're thrilled with how well the 'Folk Beauty' area came together.

It was a treat to meet your lovely family. Clearly your daughter is already a music fan!

Again thank you. And as I always say, once you're in my database you don't get out, so I hope we'll be able to work together again soon. I trust the rest of the summer is treating you and yours well. Please keep in touch.
